

Michelle Cottier is Full Professor at the Faculty of law of the University of Geneva. Her fields of specialization include family law (especially child law), comparative law, sociology of law, interdisciplinarity in law, and the study of gender, sexuality and law.

Her first book has analyzed the gendered nature of the image of the child in child protection and juvenile penal law (Cottier 2006). She is also the co-author of the first comprehensive introduction to the field of legal gender studies in Switzerland (Büchler and Cottier 2012). She is editor-in-chief of the German Journal of Law and Society and co-editor of the only Swiss journal specialized in family law FamPra.ch.

Michelle Cottier is a member of the board of directors and one of the managers of the Cluster on Children and Youth Politics at the Swiss Centre of Expertise in Human Rights and a member of the board of directors at the Centre d'étude, de technique et d'évaluation législatives \(CETEL\) at the University of Geneva.

Formerly she has been an Assistant Professor at the University of Basel, a Visiting Professor at Humboldt University in Berlin and a Visiting Researcher at Harvard Law School as well as at the Universities of Kent, Cardiff and Keele.

During her stay in Utrecht, Michelle Cottier worked on a commentary of article 5 (obligation to eliminate gender-based stereotypes) of the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW) and exchanged with UCERF experts on ongoing projects in the field of (comparative) family law as well as gender and law.
